1. PURPOSE OF THIS POLICY

The purpose of this Whistleblower Policy (this “Policy”) is to establish procedures for:

- a) the receipt, retention, and treatment of complaints received by Labrador Uranium Inc.(the “Corporation”) regarding accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing matters or violations to the Corporation's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, any other policy, charter or mandate of the Corporation, or applicable laws, rules and regulations; and
- b) the submission by employees, consultants, contractors, directors or officers of the Corporation (each, a “Protected Party”), on a confidential and anonymous basis, of concerns regarding questionable accounting, auditing matters or violations to the Corporation's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, any other policy, charter or mandate of the Corporation, or applicable laws, rules and regulations.

The purpose of this Policy is also to state clearly and unequivocally that the Corporation prohibits discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation against any person who (i) reports complaints to the Audit Committee regarding accounting, internal controls, auditing matters or violations of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics or (ii) provides information or otherwise assists in an investigation or proceeding regarding any conduct that he or she reasonably believes to be a violation of employment or labour laws; securities laws (including the rules or regulations of the Ontario Securities Commission, securities regulatory authorities in other provinces of Canada and any exchange upon which the securities of the Corporation are listed), laws regarding fraud or the commission or possible commission of a criminal offence. Everyone at the Corporation is responsible for ensuring that the workplace is free from all forms of discrimination, harassment and retaliation prohibited by this policy. No Protected Party has the authority to engage in any conduct prohibited by this policy.

This Policy protects:

- a) any Protected Party who legitimately and in good faith discloses an alleged violation of employment or labour laws, securities laws, laws regarding fraud or the Criminal Code of Canada or applicable criminal code in a local jurisdiction by any person with supervisory authority over the Protected Party, or any other person working for the Corporation who has the authority to investigate, discover or terminate conduct prohibited by this Policy;
- b) any Protected Party who legitimately and in good faith files, causes to be filed, testifies, participates in, or otherwise assists in a proceeding filed under employment or labour laws, securities laws or laws regarding fraud;
- c) any Protected Party who legitimately and in good faith provides information, causes information to be provided, or otherwise assists in an investigation, regarding any conduct that the Protected Party reasonably believes constitutes fraud when the information or assistance is provided to or the investigation is conducted by law enforcement, regulatory authorities, a legislature, or the Corporation; or that activity. However, since such allegation of impropriety may result in serious personal repercussions for the target person or entity, the Protected Party making the allegation of impropriety should have reasonable and probable grounds before reporting such impropriety and should undertake such reporting in good faith, for the best interests of the Corporation and not for personal gain or motivation.
